

THEORIES OF JUSTICE AND VULNERABLE GROUPS

A WORKSHOP IN POLITICAL PHILOSOPHY

This is a political philosophy webinar, aiming to bring young scholars from different parts of the globe to contribute to contemporary debates on vulnerable groups' place in society, and how theories of justice (ought to) relate to them.

MONDAY 17TH OF AUGUST

PROGRAMME

13:30 - Katarina Pitasse Fragoso (São Paulo University) – Opening and Introduction

13:45 - Shierwin Cabunilas (KU Leuven) – Political Representation and the Bangsamoro Case. Insights from Democratic Theory

14:45 - Break

15:00 - Sebastian Östlund (Umeå University) – Identifying Ill-Being for People Who Are Homeless

16:00 - Break

16:15 - Viktor Ivanković (Zagreb University) – Market Nudges and Autonomy

17:15 - Break

18:30 - Marie-Pier Lemay (University of Guelph) – Researching in and on Solidarity: The Romance of Solidarity

19:30 - Break

19:40 - Nico Brando (Queen's University Belfast) – Closing Remarks

19:45 - Beers

REGISTRATION:

https://docs.google.com/forms/d/1LWJNOy_kNAM_ULdO_iMYKR46DfO-dB5wg9B42OLTJ0E